No Frills "Pick-up" Menu

Campus Dining Services realizes that all customers have different catering needs. For college sponsored student organizations and college departments who desire quality food but are on a tight budget, Campus Dining Services offers a No Frills Menu catering option. Although the specific program can be tailored to suit your specific needs at Adams State College, a general outline of the program is as follows:

- Student organizations and Groups that order from the No Frills Menu can pick up orders in the Student Union Building.
- Saving time and adding convenience, items will be placed on disposable serving pieces.
- Orders include appropriate condiments: cups, paper products, napkins, etc.

How to Place Your Order.....

Try to Plan your event well in advance. Know how many people will be attending. Be sure to reserve a room if needed, including tables for staging your food and beverages. Make plans to pick up your order.

To order your No Frills Menu selection, contact the ASC Catering Office at 587-7311 at least three business days in advance of the event.

All food and beverages to be served in the Student Union Building must be purchased through Sodexo Dining Services. If an Adams State College Space is used for an event, the student, organization, or club sponsoring the event is responsible for picking up their order, set-up, and cleaning and removing items brought into the space.

After your order is picked up, Sodexo Dining Services and Adams State College relinquishes responsibility for any incidence of illness if food is not stored and served at the correct temperature. Your order will be ready for pick up in food safe containers recommended for hot or cold foods.
